One of Barbara Seagram's best...By AcesoAs a newer bridge player, this has reduced the times I am frozen in fear not knowing what to bid, with everyone staring at me! You know the feeling, right? This answers a lot of the questions you have when you have absolutely no idea what to bid. Everything is written in clear, concise language with a bit of humor thrown in. I am grateful that Barbara Seagram has written all the "25" books - I would have given up ages ago without them.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Brilliant for the advanced playerBy Phillip RohlinIt takes situations in which you would normally abstain from participating in the hand and provides a strategy for getting involved and possibly winning the hand. A very clever and well-conceived book. Phillip Rohlin 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Donna K Very clear and well written.

A follow-up book from the author team that produced the award-winning and best-selling 25 Bridge Conventions You Should Know. Aimed at the same novice/social player audience as their first book, this new title deals with competitive auctions in which the opponents have opened the bidding. This is the most complex area of bridge bidding, and has never up to now been dealt with comprehensively in a book that is understandable for non-experts.

About the Author Barbara Seagram is one of North America's top bridge teachers, and is a popular speaker on cruise ships and at bridge events throughout the world. Marc Smith (UK) is probably best-known as the co-author of the bestselling "25 Bridge Conventions You Should Know." However, he has many other books to his credit, and contributed regularly to BRIDGE magazine in the UK.
