Anton Chekhov : Chekhov: Lady with the Dog (Russian Texts) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Chekhov: Lady with the Dog (Russian Texts):

Chekhov's Dama s sobachkoy (1899) is perhaps the most celebrated example of his shorter prose and one of the most famous stories in Russian literature. The tale of an adulterous liaison, set in Yalta, it shows to greatest effect Chekhov's propensity for the conjuring of mood and atmosphere. The tale's modernity is displayed too in its anticlimactic conclusion of poignant open-endedness: '...and it was clear to both that the end was still far, far off and that the most complicated and difficult part was only beginning.'

About the Author Anton Chekhov was born in 1860 in a small town on the Sea of Azov. His plays include Ivanov, Platonov, Uncle Vanya, On the High Road, and The Proposal, among others. As he was beginning to gain international recognition as a major dramatist, he suffered two heart attacks and died in Badenweiler, Germany.
