Awesome chess book!!!!By MorgankI think it is a great at challenging you if you are into chess.Sometimes I am soooooo challenged when It says,"checkmate in one move that I have to go beyond one move!-Porter, 8With the permission of his mom. :-)0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great for studentsBy MartinaGreat for students who are really interested in chess and want to take the time to fully study the game.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great puzzles for beginnerBy panaraMy six year old son loved the puzzles in this book. I am planning to use the book for my son to improve his middle game.

International Master, Dean Ippolito has been one of the foremost and recognizable chess players in the United States for over a decade. He has been interviewed on several different television programs both here and abroad including Inside Edition. At the age of eleven, he was featured in Sports Illustrated and Boys Life after winning several National Titles. Both articles labeled him as "One of the Nation's Top Rising Chess Stars". Dean has been a 10 time All-America team Member and has 11 National Championships to his name. Dean's chess teaching skills are highly regarded. He has taught three of the youngest National Champions in history and has taught more than 20 nationally ranked students. This workbook is based on his lesson plans and is a great tool not only for the player looking to improve, but also for teachers and coaches.

About the Author International Master Dean Ippolito is one of few International Masters in the United States. A ten-time All America Team member, eleven-time National Champion and one of the foremost and recognizable chess players in the United States. He has been interviewed on many television programs both here and abroad including Inside Edition. He has also been featured in many magazine articles including Sports Illustrated and Boys Life. Dean has been trained by some of the best and most notable chess instructors in the world. In the past three years alone, Dean has coached thirteen nationally ranked scholastic players, nine of whom are ranked in the top 10 nationally for their respective age groups, and has a total of eight national championships as a coach. This includes two-time National Champion Eric Liao who won his first national title at the age of four making him the youngest player to win a national title in history.
