It was a good quality, the pictures are fun to look at! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Customer I love it!!!!

The modern world is at once exciting, complicated, ridiculous, confusing, and tedious, but ever changing and always fascinating. Based on his keen observations of daily life from his unique perspective, French artist Jean Jullien uncovers the humor and simple beauty that exists in the people, places, and things that surround him. Understanding that visual communication can often be the most direct and immediately understood, Jullien cleverly and candidly reveals in his artwork the hilarious realities and universal truths of human behavior and modern life that connect us all. Seamlessly transcending the boundaries of commercial art and graphic illustration, his bold and playful drawing and painting style has attracted a diverse range of clients and delighted everyday fans of his comic and irreverent sensibility all over the world. In addition to his successful body of work, his wonderfully creative daily postings of his art on his very popular Instagram are his musings of the moment whether mini objets d'art, found art enhanced by silly doodles, or sketchbook drawings. teNeues is proud to present the first monograph of this young and talented artist, Jean Jullien: Modern Life.

In Modern Life (TeNeues), French illustrator Jean Jullien's clever and instantly relatable work lampoons contemporary culture. Ripe with visual language and semantics, Jullien's collection of cartoonish illustrations is a proverbial children's book for adults. Dani Vernon Surface #134 DECEMBER 2016 / JANUARY 2017, p. 114 "The illustrator Jean Jullien, whose simple "Peace for Paris" symbol became the image replicated around the world after last year's devastating terrorist attacks, is the subject of "Jean Jullien: Modern Life" (teNeues, $35, 160pp.), a compact compendium of his recent work. The actor Jesse Eisenberg wrote the foreword, and who better to introduce Mr. Jullien's wry, pointed pen-and-ink renderings of our 21st-century neuroses? A must for any of @jean_jullien's over-600,000 Instagram followers (and this, more likely than not, includes your snap-happy son, daughter, sister or brother)." Jeremy Allen for The New York Times

About the Author Jean Jullien is a French graphic artist currently living in London. Originally from Nantes, France, he graduated from Central Saint Martins in 2008 and from the Royal College of Art in 2010. His practice ranges from illustration to photography, video, costumes, installations, books, posters, and clothing to create a coherent, yet eclectic body of work.
