Mark Voger : Monster Mash: The Creepy, Kooky Monster Craze In America 1957-1972 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Monster Mash: The Creepy, Kooky Monster Craze In America 1957-1972:

By Sealed Fate This book is ok....I guess I was expecting more of a thorough overview of all things Monster from the stated time period, but then, the author didn't claim that this was to be an exhaustive treatise on the subject. Lots of great color photo's inside and the book does have a nice layout. I think for me personally I found too much attention given to the Munsters and The Addams Family. While I do appreciate both, and agree that they are relevant to the time period celebrated here, I feel that their focus is unbalanced and excessive. Just my opinion. Of course, if monster themed sitcoms, replete with canned laughter, is your idea of the Monster Golden Age then you'll likely add a star or two! 15 of 16 people found the following review helpful. Monster Kids Rejoice! By Sandra If you were born in the mid to late 1950s to the 1960s, and you (like me) grew-up a "Monster Kid" then this book is for you. It's all here! Famous Monsters, Creepy, Eerie, Don Post's Awesome Monster Masks, Aurora Monster Model's, Pre VHS Super 8 Monster Movies, Mars Attacks, The Adams Family, The Munsters...I could go on and on listing all the cool Monster Stuff that author Mark Voger included in this book, but if you are in fact a "Monster Kid" of any age I strongly recommend that you purchase this wonderful book. I feel like I stepped into a time machine and went back to the late 1970 when I was just a small lad waiting for the next issue of The Monster Times to come out. Filled with great pictures, Interviews, Bios and a bit of Monster History as well. Foreword by Zacherley - The Cool Ghoul. 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. NOTHING NEW, BUT GREAT MEMORIES! By Robert E. Behers Interesting journey for those of us that just happened to grow up during the huge monster mania period from the late 50's to the early 70's. This book brings back many memories of Saturday late night tv horror fests, building the fun Aurora models, being entertained at halloween with various radio recordings, Cooper costumes, and Famous Monsters of Filmland issues. Nothing really new here to find, but a fun bunch of memories which bring a smile to your face if you were part of the scene.

Time-trip back to the frightening era of 1957-1972, when monsters stomped into the American mainstream! Once Frankenstein and fiends infiltrated TV in 1957, an avalanche of monster magazines, toys, games, trading cards, and comic books crashed upon an unsuspecting public. This profusely illustrated, full-color hardcover covers that creepy, kooky Monster Craze through features on Famous Monsters of Filmland magazine, the #1 hit "Monster Mash," Aurora's model kits, TV shows (Shock Theatre, The Addams Family, The Munsters, and Dark Shadows), Mars Attacks trading cards, Eerie Publications, Planet of the Apes, and more! It features interviews with James Warren (Creepy, Eerie, and Vampirella magazines), Forrest J Ackerman (Famous Monsters of Filmland), John Astin (The Addams Family), Al Lewis (The Munsters), Jonathan Frid (Dark Shadows), George Barris (monster car customizer), Ed "Big Daddy" Roth (Rat Fink), Bobby (Boris) Pickett ("Monster Mash" singer/songwriter) and others, with a Foreword by TV horror host Zacherley, the "Cool Ghoul."
