By Laura Santos This is my third calligraphuck purchase and while I love the concept, I was hoping for a bit more from this set. They still get four stars because I felt the description was not false, and there are three notebooks so it's a great deal, but I felt it could use more detail. The covers are soft and reminded me of a church hymn book. You know, the ones that you can easily roll into a trumpet? This could be a negative or a positive depending on your intended use. But that's how soft these are. The pages have pretty scroll details on both the top and bottom of the pages and are nicely lined. The paper weight feels like standard paper and while I appreciate the stitched center, I hate that the center page will always be opened first (see pics). I would have paid the same price for one notebook with individual pages versus the stack and fold method of this one. I still love the beautiful font and offensive language and I hope a higher quality option is available soon. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By anne from st louis These are great for the person on your gift list who would appreciate the off-color humor. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Customer These just make me laugh! I will be gifting them to deserving friends!

Each cover in this trio of notebooks features an amusing and inspiring expletive in foil-stamped calligraphy. Set of three 64-page notebooks Lined interior pages with decorative flourishing Soft covers with center-stitched spines.
