Julian Pottage, Marc Smith : The Golden Rules Of Declarer Play (MASTER BRIDGE) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Golden Rules Of Declarer Play (MASTER BRIDGE):

Who needs rules on how to play as a declarer? The truth is that the instincts people have come to depend upon are often honed from a few basic guidelines. This book provides all those guidelines as well as the reasoning behind them and also explains when you should not follow the rules. By assuming only a minimum of knowledge, the authors have brought the subject within the reach of many players and introduce the beginner gradually by placing the slightly trickier topics towards the end of the book.

About the Author Julian Pottage and Marc Smith are both former Junior Internationals and both current Grand Masters. Both have written many bridge books and contribute to a wide range of bridge journals. Julian Pottage lives in south Wales, Marc Smith lives in Southampton.
