Penal would've given this product 5 stars except that the puzzle seems to be a bit unnecessarily small. There's more room on the page to make it bigger, so I wish they had. Otherwise, I really like the fact that the answer for each puzzle is on the back of the page. That way I can tear that day off and take it with me and still have the answers. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. I have to get this every year By A. Simons This little calendar is so much fun! NYT crossword puzzles go from easy to hard during the week, so the Friday, Sat-Sun. puzzles are always a brain tease. My year would be so much less entertaining without my daily puzzles!

If you love crossword puzzles, you probably know that those of The New York Times are second to none intelligently conceived, witty, and always fun, even when they are brutally challenging. Edited by puzzlemaster extraordinaire Will Shortz, the 314 New York Times puzzles in this calendar (Saturdays and Sundays share a page) increase in difficulty as each week progresses; answers are on the backs of pages. The calendar also includes yearly grids for 2012 and 2013 and pages for notes. Printed with soy-based inks. 366-day padded tear-off calendar with plastic base. Size: 6.25 x 5.25 in. (box 7 x 6 in.).
