3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Enjoyably fills in the time By Olsen The New York Times crossword puzzles are an interesting and amusing cross between cryptic puzzles and concise puzzles. Not so easy for a British reader as one has to get into an American mindset and into American spelling. There are also references to American sportspeople not so easy for British readers. I wish it didn't say 'Easy' in big letters on the front of the book; it makes one feel a bit of a fool sitting over it for ages. If you are in to crosswords give it a go. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Easy, but I still cheat. By Dr. SI love these. This is the 4th one of the easy omnibus books I've gotten and they make me feel so smart! I still have to cheat though, because I'm not that smart. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Easy to use and very enjoyable. By J. Lippelman My husband loves these books. I keep buying him new ones.
